WILL REPORT MILLER BILL

CANADIAN COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY TAKES SURPRISING ACTION AT OTTAWA.

Measure Will Go to the House on Tuesday Next After Being Passed Upon by Department of Justice to Determine Its Practicability.

Ottawa. Ont., March 10.—At today's sitting of the Miller bill committee it was decided by a vote of 5 to 2, F. D. Monk and J. B. McColl dissenting, to report the bill to the house on Tuesday. Before that is done the department of justice will be asked to pass on the wording of the bill with regard to its practicability and in order to make it clear that it does not prohibit individual betting. In all probability it will be debated in the house next week. The action of the committee comes in the nature of a surprise to the advocates of racing, as it had been generally thought that a majority of the committee would be adverse to the legislation proposed by Mr. Miller.

John F. Ryan of the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding has filed in the house a strong presentment in opposition to the Miller bill, the chief points of which are as follows:

"That the National Bureau gets its horses by donation and that 75 per cent, of such donations come from American owners and breeders who race in Canada and approve of the Anglo-Saxon racing laws in force here.

"That the National Bureau cannot compete for thoroughbred horses in the open market against the buyers of European governments, so that if there is any legislation which will stop the donation of horses, our work will be greatly hampered.

"That our bureau aims to improve the horse-breeding industry of Canada. The thoroughbred is the only known horse which improves all breeds, and the breeding industry of Canada. The thoroughbred is the only known horse which improves all breeds, the National Bureau.

"That our bureau aims to improve the horse-breeding industry of Canada. The thoroughbred is the only known horse which improves all breeds, the National Bureau is creating a utility type which will do a large share of the nation's work and be ready for cavalry purpose in time of war. In other words, the National Bureau is screening at this problem for the British Empire and this branch of imperial defense is second only in farment of the problem for the British Empire a

BOOMING THE LATONIA MEETING.

Treasurer Hachmeister and Secretary Maginn Put In

Louisville, Ky., March 10.—Racing Secretary Ed Maginn and Secretary-Treasurer John Hachmeister of the Latonia Jockey Club spent Tuesday here in the interest of the coming meeting to be given at the Kenton County track. Secretary Maginn visited the stables at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park and distributed entry blanks for the eight stakes to be run during the coming meeting, and which are to close on St. Patrack's Day, March 17.

Mr. Maginn secured the promise of many entries from the borsemen at the two tracks, and both he and Mr. Hachmeister predict a successful season of sport at Latonia this year. The overnight purses will be worth from $500 to $500 each and will be framed to suit horses in training. Mr. Hachmeister spent the day inspecting with Colonel Matt J. Winn, interesting himself with the mutuel betting improvements the manager of the New Louisville Jockey Club has in view for the coming spring meeting here. Mr. Hachmeister said:

"We want anything new and up to date in this line, as we purpose to test out this system of betting fully at our coming meeting and desire to make this style of betting popular with the Cincinnati racing public. We failed so with the mutuel system there when it was used before that we feel sure the situation now calls for an innovation in this line, and we want the best machines with every adjunct that will give the bettors confidence. As far as good racing goes, I believe we will serve up the best sport the coming summer seen in Latonia in years, as the increase we have made in the added money of our stakes and purses will hold the better class of horses in Kentucky until the meeting is over."

GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY SOURCES.

Louisville, Ky., March 10.—Captain James Williams, the veteran turfman, has arrived here with his string of seven horses from his farm at Spring Station, Ky., and has taken up quarters at Douglas Park. The stable is in charge of Captain Williams Park. The stable is in charge of Captain Williams Park. The stable is in charge of Captain Williams ago from Florida. where he raced a string of horses. Most of the Williams horses are youngsters and the star of the collection is the half-brother to the berby favorite. Waldo, a lusty-looking two-year-old colt, by Garry Hermann, the sire of Alfred Noble and other good horses.

Captain Williams has several times in the last few months turned down flattering offers for this promising colt. He has made many stake nominations for the youngster this season and for 1911, and has also entered him for the Keniucky Derby, Tidal and Lawrence Realization Stakes and other important events.

idal and Lawrence and appearant events.
Fred Luzader has gone to West Baden to spend few days with his employer. J. R. Wainwright. nazader will return to Churchill Downs Saturday took after the dozen horses he now has quartered

The Kentucky Association is putting out a handsome poster to advertise the coming meeting at Lexington. It is a picture in several colors of a pretty girl patting the head of a good-looking thoroughbred whose head is visible over a stable door, Over the picture will be the inscription. "When Thoroughbreds Meet" and under it the words, "At Lexington April 30 to May 7."

EXCELLENT MATERIAL FOR KENTUCKY'S NOTABLE RACES

With the returns all in, so far as the requisite second payment is concerned, the lists of eligibles for the coming renewal of the Kentucky Berby and the Kentucky Oaks, those two greatest of all bluegrass racing fixtures, give abundant assurance that the glorious traditions of the past will not suffer by comparison. This year will bring the thirty-sixth running of each of these historic events, which are numbered among the longest-established fixtures of the American turf. The Kentucky Berby numbers among its winners such really great racers as Aristhes, Baden Baden, Fonso, Hindoo, Leonatus, Joe Cotton, Ben Ali, Spokane, Riley, Kingman, Halma, Ben Brush, Typhoon H., Plaudit, Lieutenant Gibson and Allan-a-Dale. The general excellence of the material available for this year's running is a striking feature of the eligible list and it would not be surprising should the coming winner take high rank in the illustrious list of victors. The conditions of the race, together with its list of twenty-nine eligibles, are as follows:

Kentucky Derby of 1910—For time-year-olds; distance one and one-quarter miles; value $6,000, of which $700 to the second and $300 to the third; colts to carry 122 pounds, geldings 119 pounds, fallies 117 pounds; non-winners of a three-year-old race of the value of $1,500 allowed 5 pounds; maidens allowed 12 pounds.

Long Island Tracks Taking On Evidences of Approach of Another Racing Season.

New York, March 10.—Nearly fifty horses have ar rived at the Long Island tracks from Juarez, Mex. There are nearly 300 thoroughbreds now quartered at Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend, Belmont Park and Brighton, and according to the applications for stable room double this number will be on hand when Aqueduct opens.

There was plenty of life at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. James Rowe, John Hyland and Sam Hildreta had their strings out and the horses did useful terday. James Rowe, John Hyland and Sam Hildreth had their strings out and the horses did useful exercise.

One of Mr. Rowe's bunch was the three-year-old Suffragist, a colt by Voter out of Noonday and brother to Suffragette. Suffragist, with Helmet, one of James R. Keene's Metropolitan Handicap candidates, worked a quarter in :27 on the yearling track.
Suffragist is a handsome chestnut, with smooth action and good conformation. He is one of the horses that looked badly upon his return from England last fall. He has improved greatly and it is Mr.
Rowe's intention, apparently, to get him ready for the Belmout Park meeting.
Hildreth sent Joe Madden and Firestone to the yearling track, where they had a good gallop. They were as playful as two pupples and seemed delighted to get out into the open after being cooped up all winter. Dalmatian. Rose Queen, King James, Fayette and Restigouche cantered on the main course, which is in tiptop condition.

Hyland's bunch was made up of Charles R. Fleischmann's horses, Footpad, Tony Bonero and Pontoon.
They galloped quarters on the yearling track in :28 or :29. Hyland did not bring out Osenr Lewisoln's Star Shoot gelding, Etherial. Etherlal was injured in training last fall and Hyland will not hurry him this spring.

in training last fall and Hyland will not hurry him this spring.

Two horses that attracted much attention at Gravesend were Special Brew and a chestnut sister to Hilarlous in the string that David Woodford is training for Frank J. Nolan of Albany. Special Brew, a big roan colt by Kingston-Stylltene, is a brother to King's Courier, a winner in this country and in England, and one of the best horses that Kingston ever sent to the races. Woodford may not send Special Brew to the post before the Saratoga meeting. The roan is a strapper and will require careful handling lest he break down in training. Hilarlous' sister is a good looker but a bit flighty. Woodford says she can run fast and he predicts that she will settle down after she has had a bit of training.

AMERICAN JUVENILES TAKEN TO ENGLAND.

The English Racing Calendar publishes the names of four two-year-olds bred in this country and bought in this country last year at the yearling sales by C. Wolfe, an Englishman. They are: Galloping Ban, ch. f, by Ornus—Garter Ban; Happy Father, ch. c, by Fatherless—Belle Fleur; Kitty O'Shay, b. f, by Ornus—Beria, and Summer Dalsy, ch. f, by Hawkswick—Dalsy W.

Is Fined $100 and Warned that Repetition Will Cost Him His License-Investigation in Progress.

Him His License—Investigation in Progress.

San Francisco, Cal., March 10.—Jockey Taplin indulged in rough riding tactics at Oakland today and incurred a fine of $100. He was also warned that a repetition of the offense would cause him to lose his license. This official action was taken after the second race, in which Taplin rode Blased. He closed fast on the rail and Glass on Waner had him in close quarters. When near the finish Taplin struck Glass with his whip across the body in plain view of the Judges and spectators. Glass stopped riding Waner and Taplin landed Blased the winner.

Favorites and well-backed horses were successful in most of today's races. Lady Panchita was plunged on in the third and romped home. Duke of Milan showed to be one of the best selling platers here when he gained an easy victory in the fourth. The consistent Thistle Belle added another purse to her credit in the closing race.

The stewards are investigating the race won by Likely Dicudonne last Saturday. Mel Lawrence, one of the owners of Rey Hindoo, is not satisfied with the showing his horse made, as he said be was in good condition, and the stable connections bet on him. The officials are going into the matter thoroughly. Jockey Glass was suspended for four days for misbehavior at the post in the last race.

It has been definitely decided that Jake Holtman will continue to do the starting next week, as Richard Dwyer has been invited to Salt Lake City for a meeting of the Utah Jockey Club there on Tuesday. H. G. Bedwell expects to leave here about April 1 for New York with fifteen horses. The remainder of his extensive string will be offered at auction at Oakland. Mr. Bedwell will ship direct to Aqueduct and prepare his horses for immediate racing on the metropolitan circuit.

The date for the closing of the Oakland meeting has not been definitely decided. President Williams, of the New California Jockey Club, stated today in reply to an inquiry. The meeting may be extended beyond the 100 days already scheduled.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Foxhall Keene's Precentor II. is reported to be in good condition for his effort in the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase.

A. Anthony, who rode his majesty's Ambush II. to victory in the Liverpool Grand National eleven years ago, will next week have the mount on Judas, which finished second to Lutteur III. last year.

The Hamilton Riding and Hunt Club at its annual meeting decided to urge the Hamilton Jockey Club to donate a cup and larger purse for the gentlemen's race at the spring meeting this year. George Hope was elected honorary president; John Gartshore, president: Gordon J. Henderson, vice-president: James Kilgour, secretary, and A. R. Loudon, treasurer.

NEALON NO LONGER CRIPPLE

SUBURBAN WINNER OF 1907 AGAIN IN EX-CELLENT CONDITION.

Trainer John Powers Succeeds in Getting Him Back to the Races and He Wins at the First Asking.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 10.—Nealon, hero of the Suburban Handicap of 1907, today made his re-appearance on the turf after an absence of almost two years and showed brilliant form in beating a band of fair sprinters in the third race at Moncreif Park this afternoon. In his only start during 1908, which was on July 20, he was beaten off and shortly thereafter he went lame and was pronounced hopelessly broken down. Trainer John Powers perserved with the son of Sain after he had been re-purchased by Barney Schreiber, his breeder, from S. C. Hildreth, and brought him back to the races this afternoon apparently as sound as ever he was. At all events, he won his race in runaway fashion and pulled up in first-class condition. Never rated as a sprinter, there were some who doubted his ability to beat the band of speedy racers he met today, but he fooled them. Nealon will be raced on the metropolitan circuit the coming season and will leave for New York shortly with the remainder of the Schreiber horses. "Billy" Porter was among the first to congratulate John Powers over Nealon's victory and he immediately telegraphed the following to Barney Schreiber, who is at present in California: "Nealon came back, now it's up to Jeffries."

Keen racing was the order this afternoon, all six contests furnishing driving finishes, with the shortest of margins separating the first two in four of them. James McLaughlin, who has been in great luck during the past week, saddled another winner this afternoon in Campaigner, which won the feature race, a mile and an eighth affair, in which he beat some good opponents.

The two-year-old race went to T. P. Hayes' Oracle, which won by a length in a driving finish with Old Squaw.

After the running of the sixth race, E. George claimed the defeated favorite, Collis ormsby Mr.

George was represented in the race by Lorimar, which he purchased this morning from Chris Goodharte.

Steve L'Hommedieu and M. Boasberg were among the new layers that cut in this afternoon. L'Hommedieu beat the last three races yesterday and ran $30 up to $4.000.

T. M. Glasco got in from Juarez this morning with the sprinter Kiamesha II.

J. S. Hawkins has arranged to return to Kentucky and he will probably leave here on Sunday. He goes to take up his horses that wintered at Lexington.

Edward Maginn, racing secretary of the Latonia Jockey Club, is expected here tomorrow. He comes to interest local horsemen in the stakes offered at the Milldale track.

W. O. Parmer and George Hendrie, who have been wintering in southern Florida, arrived tonight and will remain a few days before continuing on their way north.

Jockey Dave Nicol has signed a contract with H. L. Shaw for the remainder of the meeting. The consideration is $500 per month.

Tom Shaw, who suspended operations after the declaring off of all bets on the Decency race, is again booking in the Moncreif ring, the differences between the bookmaker and the association having been amicably adjusted.

The success of the inaugural performance of the Moncreif Minstrels last Sunday night was so great that the performance will be repeated at the Duval Theater tomorrow night for the benefit of charity.

David Dunlop has sold his stock in the Moncreif Park track to F. J. Pons at a profit of $2,800 on his investment.

Jockeys Young and Pendergast arrived last night from Juarez and brought with them several horses. Great Heavens, the horse that F. J. Pons pur-chased at the Chinn sale on Saturday last spread a hoof in his race of Tuesday and will be thrown out of training in consequence. W. H. Bickers, manager of the Pensacola track, announces that he has sold a half interest in the plant to Louis Varneulli and A. Fourcade, of New Orleans.

CARMAN RACERS RUN DISAPPOINTINGLY.

Representatives of Big New York Stable Fail to Make Good at Tampa Track.

Tampa, Fla., March 10.—Fast racing and frequent upsets featured this afternoon's sport at the Tampa Bay track. Climatic conditions could not have been improved on and served to induce the presence of a big attendance. Speculation, however, was light, due no doubt to the long session of racing here. Interest centered chiefly in the running of the fifth race, an owners' handicap under selling conditions, which brought about the meeting of some fairly use-ful platers, ridden by the best lightweight riders at the course. Tom Dolan and Jockey Cole landed the purse in easy style from Tamar and San Gil. The battle for second, place between Burton and the Carman apprentice, Langan, was a spirited one, in which Burton carried off the honors.

Carman starters made a poor showing during the afternoon. The stable was represented by Set in Gold in the opener. Sir Ashton in the second and Waterbury in the third. Sir Ashton was the only one of the trio that managed to land any part of the purse money, but at that his performance was probably the most disappointing, due to the fact that he was an overwhelming favorite. His conqueror, Donaldo, was backed for a good thing by a smart coterie. Sir Ashton pulled up in bad shape, stumbling and unseating his rider.

Louise B. scored a lucky win in the opener, for had complaint been made by Ortega's rider the judges probably would have taken the purse away from her, as she fouled Ortega palpably most of the way. Under a good ride by Jackson, Clysmic managed to beat the band of sprinters in the third, including Our Nugget, Merman, La Gloria and Waterbury. After many attempts, Lucullus managed to get away with a purse when he scored in the fourth. La Fayette's victory in the closing dash was the most easily achieved of any winner of the afternoon. Murphy's effort on Bronte in this race was decidedly weak and he finished a distant trailer.

Starter Dade will leave for his home in Henderson, Ky., on Tuesday next, leaving William Suvder to finish out the remaining days of the meeting at th to finish out the remaining days of the meeting at the barrier.

J. H. Nichols will ship his consignment of racers at the close of the racing here to Lexington. Ky. W. J. Steirs and J. H. Weaver will remain here for some time before departing with their stables for Louisville, Ky.

Rumors that the county prosecutor may yet take some action in regard to securing a definition relative to "bookmaking" and "poolselling" will not down. It is said that he contemplates making an arrest of one of the bookmakers before the close of the racing.

AQUEDUCT STAKES TO CLOSE NEXT TUESDAY.

Last year the accustomed spring opening of New York racing at Aqueduct was one of the things missed from the turf map, but a complete restoration has been made this year and the Queens County Jockey Club is now in the field with an offer of stake races sure to appeal successfully to owners. It is quite cheering to admirers of racing to know that Aqueduct is to again open the metropolitan circuit on the long-established date of April 15, and this well-appointed track is sure to hold an old-time gathering to view the decision of the Carter Handleap of 1910. In common with the great mass of eastern stakes this event has been shorn of much of its former value, but its $2,500 will do very well as a starter on the road to better things in the future. As a matter of fact the twelve stakes offered by the club compare very well with those of the greater racing organizations of New York. It is more than probable that they would have been more liberal still could it have been so that the present session of the New York legislature had concluded its labors and adjourned before the time for offering them arrived. It is well enough to remember that Governor Hughes has recommended legislation hostile to racing that is yet to be acted upon by the body at present in session at Albany.

The stakes now on offer are to close for entries at midnight of next Tuesday and are the Carter Handleap, Queens County Handleap, Freeport Handleap, Peconic Handleap, Rockaway Stakes and Flushing Stakes for three-year-olds, and the Canarsie Stakes, Rose Stakes, Goone Stakes and Woodhaven Stakes for two-year-olds. All are events well known to turfmen and are liberally endowed. Entries are to be sent to Secretary F. Reberger, 399 Fullon St., Brooklyn, New York, and should be sent on speedily and in overflowing numbers.

An unusual libel case has been tried at the Newcastle, Eng., Assizes. A draper sued a handbookmaker for damages because of an alleged libel in a letter to Tattersall's Committee, saying that the draper was a defaulter to many bookmakers in Newcastle. The judge did not want to hear the case, being under the impression that the action was really intended to insure the giving of true evidence before Tattersall's Committee. This mistaken impression being corrected, his lordship said. "I am glad of that. It doesn't do for Tattersall's Committee to be sending these people to the law courts." The defendant pleaded that his statements were true. He produced five witnesses who showed that the draper was a frequent winner of large sums, which he collected, but when he lost he repudiated his obligations. The court ruled that the occasion has obligations. The court ruled that the occasion was privinged, and the question of malice, and justification was then dealt with. The jury found for the feation was then dealt with. The jury found for the defendant and the draper had to pay the costs,
